

151. Farfett idakkar;
il-warda mbissma toghxa
ta' omm bil-ferh.

151. A butterfly pollinating... the smiling flower rejoices with the joy of a mother.

152. Demm tar-rebbiegha fil-vini dhalt tat-twieqi u l-galleriji.

152. *O blood of spring
you have run into the veins of windows and balconies.*

153. Il-warda tisma'
lehen missirijietha:
"lewwen u fewwah".

153. *The rose hears
the voice of her forefathers:
"shed colours and perfume".*

154. Id-dlam fit-trejqa ghaddej fanal jixxengel taht karettun.

154. *A road at nighttime;
a lantern passes by realing under a cart.*

155. Qatt qatt f'mixjietu ic-centipied ma tfixkel b'liema sieq jibda.

155. The centipede in his walk never got mixed minded with which foot to start.

156. Ġo din il-mejda*
inzerghet iz-zerriegħa
tat-tieni gwerra.

156. In this table
the seed was sown
of the second world war.*

* Il-mejda li fuqha gie ffirmat it-Trattat ta' Versailles.

* The table on which the Versailles Treaty was signed.

157. Ix-xita thabbat
fil-bieb tal-bidwi hienja bir-rigal f'idha.

157. Rain knocks at the door of the farmer, happy with a present in her hand.

158. Naqbar din qalbi;
taht kull salib hemm xewqa
li mhix mitmuma.

158. My heart is a graveyard; under every cross there is a wish which remained unsatisfied.

159. Waslet huttafa
b'itra m'ghand ir-rebbiegha

159. A swallow has arrived with a letter from spring saying li dalwaqt tasal.

she is soon arriving.

160. Il-bilbla tghanni
hdejn bieb is-sema: "ifthuli, jien anglu bhalkom".

160. *The skylark sings
beside heaven's door: "open to me, I am an angel too".*

161. Xaghra t'ghesieleg;
taht kull ghaslug hemm basla bis-semm mimlija.

161. A waste full of the flowers of the squill-under each flower a bulb full of poison.

162. Hagar Qim jixhed li nzul ix-xemx bhal iehor ma deherx fix-xefaq.

162. Hagar Qim testifies that there never was one sunset like another.

163 L-ikhal tas-sema;
il-wicc musfar ta' xwejha
mit-tieqa thares.

163 *A blue sky;
the pale face of an old woman looking from a window.*

164. Qabel il-bniedem
il-qasba kienet tghanni, kienet poeta.

164. *Before Adam
the reed used to sing
and was a poet.*

165. Prinċep ta' mhabba,
'mma l-kastell tieghi waqa' gebla fuq gebla.

165. *I was a prince of love;
but my castle has crumbled stone upon stone.*

LILL-QAMAR
fil-lejl 20/21 ta' Lulju 1969

TO THE MOON
on the night 20/21 July 1969

166. (1) Nadurak, Qamar il-lejla ghax fik rieqda hemm l-astronawti.

166. *(1) O moon I adore you tonight, for in you
the astronauts are sleeping.*

167. (2) Lil min thobb l-izjed, ja Qamar, lill-poeti
jew l-astronawti?

167. *(2) Whom do you like best,
O moon, the poets
or the astronauts?*

- | | | | |
|------|--|------|--|
| 168 | (3) Staghnejt, ja Qamar, dal-lejl bil-poeżija
tar-realtà. | 168 | (3) Tonight, o moon, you enriched yourself with the poetry of reality. |
| 169. | (4) Ja qamar hlejju il-lejla int il-benniena
tal-Astronawti. | 169. | (4) O sweet moon, tonight you are the cradle of the astronauts. |
| 170. | Mulej, kif rajtu, lil Armstrong fuq il-qamar?
Bit-television? | 170. | O Lord how did you see Armstrong on the moon?
On television? |
| 171. | ’Il fuq qed jibku
iz-żewġ widnejn bil-ferh u denbu ’l isfel. | 171. | The two ears of the foal are growing upwards,
his tail downwards. |
| 172. | Waqqhet id-dalma;
l-aħħar trespisa qattret
tal-ġnien mis-siġra. | 172. | Darkness has fallen;
the last warble has dropped from the garden’s trees. |
| 173. | Manuvri fl-eqqel; jitriegħdu qishom qasab
tal-gwerra s-slaleb. | 173. | The manoeuvres at their height;
the crosses in the war cemetery
shake like reeds. |
| 174. | Il-vjola f’idi fid-dawl tax-xemx – kemm kiber
u żdied dak ġmielha. | 174. | A violet in my hand under the sun’s rays – how enhanced became its beauty. |
| 175. | Għidli, ja warda, tixtieq fil-vażett toqġhod
jew fuq il-mixtla. | 175. | Tell me, flower where do you prefer to be,
on your plant or in a vase? |
| 176. | Almenu triqti
tispiċċa qalb is-siġar
taċ-ċimiterju. | 176. | A least my road ends up amongst the trees of the graveyard. |

- | | | | |
|------|--|------|---|
| 177. | Jien żmien niftakar
meta mill-bjut jittajru
xi mitejn tajra. | 177. | I remember the time when a hundred kites
used to fly from the roofs. |
| 178. | Irgiel hemm ħamsa
u dellijiet hemm ħamsa
jimxu warajhom. | 178. | Five men and five shadows
walking behind them. |
| 179. | Lill-blat il-baħar għamlu niggieži; iż-żiffa
bix-xewk imlietu. | 179. | The waves made the rocks prickly; the wind
surrounded them with thistles. |
| 180. | Mar-riħ antinni;
ħamrana tal-ponsettja,
bojod tal-miħna. | 180. | Antennae with the wind red are those of the poinsettia, white are those of the windmill. |
| 181. | L-art il-mewġ jiekol;
il-festa tat-tempesta!
li kont imħara! | 181. | Sea billows on the shore;
the fast of the storm;
if I were a limpet! |
| 182. | Fix-xemx ileqqu
il-għajnejn tal-lelluxa
u dawk tal-lifa. | 182. | Gleaming in the sun
the eyes of the crown daisy and those of the viper. |
| 183. | Il-weraq niexef niexef ingabar gozz jistenna
xi ħadd jaħarqu. | 183. | The dried leaves gathered in a pile waiting for some body to burn them. |
| 184. | Ix-xewk iħares
il-fjuri tiegħu tajjeb:
’mma min iridhom? | 184. | The thistles protect their flowers very strongly:
but who wants them? |
| 185. | Ir-riħ ivenven;
il-qasab aktar thaxken
waħda mal-oħra. | 185. | The wind is blowing strongly;
the reeds drew closer
one to the other. |

- | | |
|--|--|
| 186. L-ahhar tas-sena;
tas-sajf il-werqa ahħara
waqgħet mid-dielja. | 186. The end of the year;
the last leaf of summer
fell from the vine. |
| 187. Nixtieq nittajjar, u qalbi thossha žgura
li għad tittajjar. | 187. I wish to fly;
and my heart feels certain that one day I shall fly. | | 188. Għanqu banana, tnejn tnejn qiegħed isajjar,
ma jridx joqtolni. | 188. A bunch of banana ripening its fruit two at a time so as not to kill me. |
| 189. Mhux par imsielet il-moda tal-ħarruba,
izda bil-qabda. | 189. The vogue of the carob tree is not to wear a pair of earrings, but a heap. |
| 190. Tursin il-bir kuntent fid-dlam ižejjen
dar is-sallura. | 190. The maiden hair is happy in the darkness of the well embelleshing the home of the eel. |
| 191. Sieket ta' dejjem ja sema; u jekk titkellem, rgħad u sajjetti. | 191. Eternally silent
o sky you are; if you open your mouth
it's thunder and lightnings. |
| 192. Langas mill-friegħi, bozoz mill-fili jerdgħu
id-dawl u l-ħajja. | 192. Like pears from the branches, the electric lamps from the wires
suck light and life. |
| 193. Ix-xmara miexja, ma' tulha ġewwa l-fili
miexi l-elettriku. | 193. The river flows; along its banks through wires flows electricity. |
| 194. Gost kbir int tieħu ja baħar mat-tfal tilgħab ħobża u sardina! | 194. What a pleasure it is for you, o sea, to play with children duck and drakes. |

- | | |
|---|---|
| 195. Jalla bġad-dudu nidhol tal-art fil-fosdqa
u farfett noħroġ. | 195. May I like a caterpillar enter the earth's chrysalis and come out a butterfly. |
| 196. Ċmieni li l-arja timlew bis-swied, hawn bosta nies eħzen minnkom. | 196. O chimneys who fill the air with blackness, how many people there are more wicked than you! |
| 197. Bdilt il-ferlija fi Christmas Tree; tgħid smajtha “qatt qatt ma bsart” ... | 197. I turned the ferule into a Christmas tree; I heard it saying “I never imagined”... |
| 198. Fil-bitha tal-palazz;
kerrejja tal-ghasafar
kull sigra tiegħu. | 198. The palace courtyard, every tree in it is for the birds
a common tenement. | | 199. Ja qara twila, bħal-ilsien twil ta' qanpiena,
doqq qed nobsrok. | 199. O long marrow,
like the long tongue of a bell,
I imagine you are ringing. |
| 200. Tgħallaq fiċ-ċella;
ilsienu barra jgħajjeb
lid-dinja kiefra. | 200. He hanged himself in the prison cell; his tongue full out cops
a snook at the cruel world. |