

- | | |
|--|--|
| 201. Lasti mimduda tax-xatba qegħdin jibku demgħa ħdejn demgħa. 202. Taf sew ix-xita tal-ġnejna kif il-fjuri tagħmilhom isbah. 203. Il-vapur għadda, waslet mill-bgħid it-tranja biex tgħid lix-xtajta. 204. Fin-niċċa mdallma fuq is-sieq tal-Madonna musbieħ il-lejl. 205. Gardell jgħanni go siġra; almenu wieħed li għadu ħieles. 206. Ix-xemx bir-raġġi nifdet is-shab bħad-driller tal-baqquniera. 207. Tal-bejt aghħsafar ma talbukomx, possibbli ċnus u rigali? 208. Ix-xemx titkaxkar fuq dahar is-shab b'subghajha qisha qarnita. 209. Fil-qrib żewġ knejjes, bejniethom f'xejn ma jaqblu, lanqas fl-arloggħi. | 201. The aslant slots of the gate are shedding tears, one close to the other. 202. The rain knows how to make the flowers of the garden look more beautiful. 203. A steamer has passed; its wake has come from far to inform the shore. 204. In a dark niche on the foot of the Madonna a firefly. 205. A gold finch singing on a tree; at least one has not been trapped! 206. The sun with a straight ray pierced the cloud like a miner with his driller. 207. O sparrows in the eaves how is it possible that they have not asked you to pay a ground-rent and a premium? 208. The sun creeps with her fingers on the clouds like a polypus. 209. Two churches beside each other, agreeing in nothing between them, not even in the time of their clocks. |
|--|--|

- | | |
|---|--|
| 210. Il-mewġa titla' mal-blata sabiex tredda' l-imħar u tkabbru. 211. Għallietek pizzi, serduk, min qasqashielek?
bl-imqass dik ommok? 212. Waqgħu l-antinni, il-miħna sfat weħidha bla skop fil-ħajja. 213. Ma nistax nagħlaq il-bieb għax il-purtiera trid toħroġ miegħi. 214. Meta l-imħara inqalgħet, baqgħet ġerħa bajda fil-blata. 215. Inxift, ja ommi, għotort, 'mma l-ġmiel ta' qalbek kull ma jmur jikber. 216. Żewġt ibniet aħwa, waħda lewża maħruqa,
u l-oħra nejja. 217. L-iljun imwerwer min-nar, iżda madwaru il-farfett jilgħab. 218. Kwiekeb jiżdiedu ...
Alla min-nar ta' kewkba iqabbar oħra. | 210. The wave climbs up the rock to feed and grow the limpets. 211. O cock, your comb is fretted; who fretted it for you?
Was it your mother with the scissors? 212. The sails have fallen down; the windmill remained alone without purpose in life. 213. I couldn't shut the door, the curtain insisted on going out with me. 214. When the limpet was plucked a white wound remained on the rock. 215. O my mother, you have become emaciated and lame, but the beauty of your heart keeps enhancing. 216. Two sisters, one is a fire-blackened almond, the other is a blanched one. 217. The lion is terrified of the fire; but the moth plays around it. 218. The stars are increasing... from the fire of one star
God kindles another. |
|---|--|

- 219. Ir-rgħaj it-tajjeb kull ħin iğorr fuq ħwejġu tal-merħla r-riħa.
- 220. Toroq ta' Malta
- b'isem qaddis f'isimhom, fejn jgħixu x-xjaten.
- 221. F'kamarti kwadru
ta' dghajsa qed tistenna:
meta sa mmorru?
- 222. Kwiekeb quddiemek Mulej, bħax-xema' jixgħel quddiem in-niċċa.
- 223. Ir-Ramla l-Hamra ...
fi ħdan Calypso Ulissi jixtieq pajjiżu.
- 224. Mid-dar nixtiequ
il-baħar; fuq il-baħar id-dar nixtiequ.
- 225. Ir-riħ ta' Mejju
jinnamra mal-bandiera bil-goff iż-żejjed.
- 226. Il-kelb qagħad jgħanni
lill-qamar; iż-ħda sidu qala' taħrika.
- 227. Twelidt, ja ġeru
iż-ħda biex tgħix tkun tista' trid il-midalja.
- 219. The good shepherd carried the smell of his flock on himself at any time.
- 220. The streets of Malta all named after the saints – the devils live in them.
- 221. In my room a picture of a waiting boat – when are we going away?
- 222. The stars before you, o Lord, like burning candles in front of a niche.
- 223. *The Bay of the Red Sand...
Ulysses in the arms of Calypso yearns for his homeland.*
- 224. At home we yearn for the sea; on the sea we yearn for home.
- 225. *The May wind
makes love to the flag but very roughly.*
- 226. *The dog sang
to the moon; but his owner was summoned for it.*
- 227. *You are born, o pup;
but you cannot live without a licence.*

- | | |
|---|--|
| 228. Mulej lid-dudu nara farfett jirxoxta;
int tara lili. 229. Ja qattus lilek iħalluk tgħix għax teqred mid-djar il-ġrieden. 230. Kemm ħlomt, Mulejja, lwien ġodor differenti biex żbajt is-siġar. 231. Sikwit, banana, nitfa' bla qies iz-zokkor iżda qatt inti. 232. Int kbir iżżejjed ja riħ! m'hemmx werqa u mewġa li m'intix fiha. 233. Lil ħalqi l-baħar ħasbu toqba fi blata u jimlih dahal. 234. Il-fildiferru imxewwek; il-liblieba miegħu tixxabbat. 235. Farfett imġennen ma jafx go liema fjura ser jibda jidħol. 236. Triq tar-rebbiegħa, il-qarsu jimxi magħha
warda wara oħra. | 228. O Lord I see the worm resuscitating as a butterfly; you see me rising. 229. O cat, men allow you to live because you kill the rats in their homes. 230. O Lord how many different green plants you dreamt of to paint the trees! 231. O banana, very often I put too much sugar, but you never. 232. You are too great, o wind!
there is no leaf or wave in which you are not present! 233. The sea mistook my mouth for a hole in the rock, and filled it with salt water. 234. The barbed wire; the bindweed climbs up with it. 235. A butterfly confused which flower he is going to enter. 236. The spring road; the cape sorrel walks along it one flower after the other. |
|---|--|

- 237. L-iljunfant libes gild griż sabiex jingħaraf sew miċ-ċirasa.
- 238. Taħbit ta' xmara taħt il-pont kbir; jien waħdi għaddej minn fuqu.
- 239. Siġar fl-ġħaxija – tisfir iraxxax minnhom – fontani ħodor.
- 240. Xi farfett qisni ...
insoff ġajku minn fjura, ġajku minn oħra.
- 241. Nifsi naqasli,
u kull ma nista' ngħanni naqra ta' ġajku.
- 242. Ja dawl ġo ruħi,
ja dawl quddiem ghajnejja, intom l-istess.
- 243. Ruħi bħal għajni jaraw dawn qatt ma jixbghu id-dawl quddiemhom.
- 244. Is-serduk għajjat
lix-xemx bis-sahħha kollha, fl-aħħar fethitlu.
- 245. Riħ fir-rebbiegħa
xammejt il-fjuri kollha bl-ebda ecċeazzjoni.
- 237. The elephant put on a grey skin to be distinguished from the cherry.
- 238. The river rushes noisily under the big bridge; over it I pass alone.
- 239. Trees in the evening... strong gushes of singing... green fountains.
- 240. *I am like a butterfly...
I suck a haiku from a flower, a haiku from another.*
- 241. *My breath is growing weak;
all that I can sing is only a small haiku.*
- 242. *O light in my soul,
o light before my eyes,
you are the same!*
- 243. *My soul is like my eyes;
they never grow tired of seeing the light.*
- 244. *The cock cried out from here and there to the sun:
at last he opened the door for him.*
- 245. O wind of spring you smelt all the flowers without any exception.

- 246. Minn ġewwa l-herba ta' dar imwaqqgħa telgħet sigra mill-isbah.
- 247. Alla tal-baħar nistħajlek bidwi tigħbor mill-mewġ il-qoton.
- 248. In-nies fir-režha:
x'uħud b'id waħda f'buthom, oħrajn bit-tnejn.
- 249. Fuq qalbi għandi
b'tatu miktuba u mżewqa: “għaliex? għaliex?”
- 250. Għanja ta' niket;
'mma n-nies tithenna ssoffha daqs karamella.
- 246. From the ruins of a fallen house has sprung a most beautiful tree.
- 247. *God of the sea,
I imagine you a farmer picking cotton from the waves.*
- 248. It's cold; people walking some with both hands in their pocket, some with one hand.
- 249. *On my heart written in colourful tattoo I have words:
“why? why?”*
- 250. *A song of sorrow;
but people enjoy sucking it like a caramel.*